

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY FOR PUBLIC REVIEW AND COMMENT
THE CITY OF POCATELLO'S COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAMMATIC
AGREEMENT FOR PROTECTION OF HISTORIC PROPERTIES

SPECIFICALLY: The Proposed Programmatic Agreement for Protection of Historic Properties

WRITTEN OPPORTUNITY: Friday, January 13, 2023 beginning at 8AM - Monday, February 13, 2023 ending at 5PM

PLACE: Municipal Building, 911 North 7th, Pocatello, Idaho 83201

ORGANIZATION HEARING COMMENT: U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

In accordance with 24 CFR Subtitle A, the US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), and Pocatello's Citizen Participation Plan, Friday, January 13, 2023 at 8:00AM signals the opening of a public comment period for the City's Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Programmatic Agreement for Protection of Historic Properties. The Region X Office of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is developing a Programmatic Agreement (PA) that will apply to Section 106 review of projects in Idaho that are subject to Part 50 and Part 58 of HUD's environmental regulations (24 CFR Parts 50 and 58). The PA will cover review of HUD-assisted projects in Multifamily Housing, Healthcare, CDBG, Disaster Recovery, HOME, Public Housing and more. The purpose of the PA is to improve the efficiency of Section 106 review of HUD projects while fostering the protection of historic properties that might be affected by the projects.

We would like to invite interested parties and the public to provide feedback and participate in the development of this PA. Written comments on the PA may be offered at the above-stated time and place. Written comments must be received on or before 5:00PM, Monday, February 13, 2023, at: City of Pocatello, ATTN: Christine Howe, 911 North 7th, Pocatello, ID 83201 or by email at: chowe@pocatello.us.

Responses to any written comments that are not accepted into the Programmatic Agreement under consideration must be provided within 15 working days by the Planning and Development Services (PDS) Department. If the written response from PDS staff is unsatisfactory and depending upon the nature of the comment, the concern may be addressed to the Mayor or the City Council. A summary of public input and all staff responses to unaccepted or unincorporated comments will become attachments to the final documents submitted to HUD.

Beginning Friday January 13, 2023, at 8:00AM, citizens will be able to access the documents at the Marshall Public Library (113 South Garfield), Pocatello City Hall (911 North 7th), L.I.F.E., Inc. (640 Pershing Avenue), NeighborWorks® Pocatello (206 North Arthur), the Housing Alliance and Community Partnerships HACP (711 North 6th), and on the City of Pocatello's website at www.pocatello.gov.

City Hall is accessible to persons with disabilities. Program access accommodations may be provided with three (3) days' advance notice by contacting Skyler Beebe at sbeebe@pocatello.us; 208.234.6248 or 5815 South 5th Avenue, Pocatello, ID.
